From the President — Corinne Renner:

Warm greetings, everyone! We have our two big spring dances coming up in May. On May 5th, Whiskey River will be playing for our Prom/Spring Fling. This is everyone's chance to dress up fancy and invite a date if you choose. However, it is not required. May 19th is our annual dance at Johnson's Barn in Arthur, with Lute Simley providing the music. Western dress is encouraged, but optional. Please join us for these celebrations of spring, and for all our other celebrations of dancing.

Band Changes

Due to health reasons, Crystal Haze has had to cancel their three 2007 dates. We appreciate that Lute Simley has agreed to play at least two of those dates for us. He has also offered to teach dance lessons at 8:30 on the nights he plays for us, free to you and at no additional charge to the club. He has always been a great friend to our group.

Membership Directories

All 2007-membership directories were mailed to paid members in March. Anyone joining after that will be mailed a directory, but will not be included in it.

Current membership stands at 95. If you did not receive a directory, please let me know.

Alumni Coordinator

Debbie Fankhanel has offered to be the Alumni Coordinator for the club, as she stays in touch with so many of the alumni. In the past, there were one or two designated alumni dances during the year.

More recently, alumni have been invited to attend all dances. We ask that they wear alumni tags to avoid confusion. Cost per person is $7.00. Friendships forged through this group are special and we want to encourage them to continue.

Thanks to Virgil Hedrich

We extend our thanks to Virgil Hedrich and his dance partners who provided free dances lessons to the group over the winter months. It was very generous of them to suggest the idea and donate their time. Those who participated seemed to enjoy themselves and learned a lot.

Dinner and Games Night

April 28, Dinner at 5 p.m. at the Fry'n Pan restaurant on Main Street in Fargo (on your own). That will give us time to order, eat and visit.

Between 6:45 and 7:00 p.m. we will go to the Sons of Norway for a games night. The last Games Night was a great success. We played cards, Domino's and UNO! Hope you can come and participate on this night. So mark your calendars.

If you have questions, contact Linda at 701-476-0330.

Smoke Free

The board would like to remind everyone that the Red River Singles dances are smoke free events. For those that do not enjoy a smoky atmosphere, RRS provides a great alternative.
