Dance location change

Please note that our dances will be downstairs at the West Fargo VFW from now on, except for the two at Johnson's Barn. Dances will be on Saturday nights from 8:30 to 12:30. Except the ones in the summer will be on Fridays. And the Christmas Dance will be on a Friday. It might just be easiest to pick up a schedule and keep it handy.

New Year's Eve

On Monday, December 31st, we'll be ringing in the new year downstairs at the VFW with Sideline playing. We'll have door prizes, as well as our usual hats, horns, leis, etc. There will probably be a sizeable crowd upstairs as well, so you may want to come earlier than usual. We may even have some decks of cards there for pre-party entertainment. No wagering, please.

Winter Celebration on January 12th

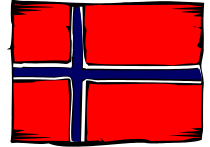

Less than two weeks after the big New Year's shindig, we will gather again at the VFW on January 12th to celebrate winter, weather permitting of course. So much to celebrrrrate.... Anyway, Lute Simley will be playing and we can stay warm by dancing and mingling. It's our only dance in January, so it's the one opportunity for everyone who's toughing it out here up north to interact with other hearty souls and kindred spirits. Those people who went south will be soooo jealous.

Please share THE NEWS with YOUR SINGLE friends.

TUSEN TAKK, SONS OF NORWAY

Red River Singles would like to thank everyone at the Sons of Norway for their hospitality during our time with them. Our decision to leave was purely financial; we certainly were treated well. We appreciate their willingness to take us in when we needed a home. If you ever have a hankering for pie, I hear they offer excellent options during their weekday lunches.

Election results

Our election results weren't slow in coming in, just slow in being reported. Probably should have elected a faster typist. There were only a couple of modifications in the makeup of the board for next year. On January 1st, Kurt Kingsbury will be taking over the job of treasurer from Diane McLain, who is still deciding if she wants to assume a new role on the board. That's about it. Everyone else is staying put for now. Pure contentment. It must be pretty great ... you should probably think about joining the board. Maybe as a newsletter director. Typing skills optional, apparently.

Board meetings are held at 7:30 p.m. before the first dance every month. These are open meetings. You are welcome to attend. .
