From the President — Corinne Renner:

What a great year 2005 was for Red River Singles! We have a new website, we brought back a summer dance to Detroit Lakes, we had some different special events for the adventurous, and we ended the year well in the black.

Here is some good news for you. The coming year looks to be as fine and as fun as the last. Thank you for your unwavering support of the club.

We have to change some of the bands listed on the 2006 schedule, as Graffiti has disbanded and we have had to replace them. The dates and locations have not changed. On January 14th, Rick Roberts--DJ will be playing. And, Sideline will be back for a couple of dates later in the year. We will keep you informed.

I hope everyone prospers and flourishes in 2006 and that you always feel like dancing.

Red River Singles "NEW" Website:

Red River Singles "NEW" website is up and running. We've had a number of visitors check out the website. I've had a few contact me to be put on the e-mail list, or requesting more information on the club. The new address is www.red-river-singles.org.

If you are not presently receiving e-mails about upcoming events, contact me through the website contact page or e-mail: www.red_river_singles@yahoo.com All names and e-mail address are kept confidential. Only RRS event information will be sent to you. NO jokes or forwards.

Our old website at geocities has added the new website address. Our thanks to Chris McIlwain for his work in keeping that site running the last few years.

2006 Membership

Red River Singles board and members invite you to join the organization. Membership for 2006 is $20. The advantages of being a member include a $3 discount for admission into the dances. In about March, all members will receive a list of the current members. This list is not available to non-members.

The following Special Events to be held at 3114 Westgate Drive, Fargo, ND:

(1/2 block east of Prairiewood Post Office)

Sunday, January 22 -- Dominoes Party and Potluck Dinner
